

Kelsie McClendon
Senior Human Resources Manager
Niagara Bottling, LLC

Kelsie McClendon has a Master's Degree in Human Resources Management from Ohio State University and a Bachelor's in Business Management from ASU. Also, a number of professional related certifications including Senior Professional Human Resources (SPHR), OSHA 30-Hour General Industry, and Development Dimensions International Certified Facilitator.

Kelsie's work experience has primarily been as a Human Resources Professional/Manager for approximately 15 years. Roles typically included some aspect of training and development from managing the training department/functions, developing training, and facilitating training. Included are two semesters of secondary education as an undergrad at ASU assisting with high school business classes and a three month internship as a Performance Improvement Analyst/Instructional Designer at Nationwide Insurance while a graduate student at The Ohio State University.

In Kelsie's current role as Senior Human Resource Manager and National Safety Lead for a manufacturing company, he is responsible for the development and management of safety training and also for developing and delivering training on leadership, human resources, and a variety of other topics.

In addition to his full-time roles, Kelsie has been an adjunct faculty for Human Resources Courses at the University of Phoenix and for the Arizona Society for Human Resources Management. Also, serves on three non-profit boards which involve training/education for job seekers or professional development: Chairman of the Maricopa County Workforce Connection Board, Certification Director for the Arizona Society for Human Resources Management, and Past President/Treasurer of the Valley of the Sun Human Resources Association.