Genesis Overview

The Genesis Youth Program assists out of school youth ages 16-24 in furthering their education or finding employment. Enrolled youth participate in a year round program where they receive tools to become successful, productive citizens. Genesis is federally funded by the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA).

Genesis partners with community agencies to offer a wide variety of services to enrolled youth. Youth Career Guidance Specialists provide eligibility assessments, initial intake, objective assessments, case management and individual service strategies.

Program Eligibility

To be eligible for the Genesis Youth Program, out of school youth must be between the ages of 16-24, not attending any school and meet one or more of the following criteria:

- A school dropout
- Within the age of compulsory school attendance but has not attended for at least the most recent complete school year calendar quarter
- Holds a secondary school diploma or recognized equivalent, is low-income and is basic skills deficient or an English language learner.
- Subject to the juvenile or adult justice system
- Homeless/Runaway
- In foster care or aged out of the foster care system
- Eligible for assistance under Section 477 of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 677), or in an out of home placement
- Pregnant or parenting
- Has a disability
- Low-income individual who requires additional assistance to enter or complete an educational program or to secure and hold employment

If a youth does not qualify other services and referrals are available.
